1.0 OVERVIEW

ENCIRCLED IN SAN FRANCISCO VIEWS, SPERA
ELEVATES HOMELIFE WITH AN UNPARALLELED 360°
PERSPECTIVE FOUND NOWHERE ELSE IN THE BAY

1.0 OVERVIEW

“A THIN VERTICAL BAND OF GLASS
FLOATS OVER A GARDEN AND
RISES TO THE SKY, OUTLINED
WITH A LUMINOUS THREAD THAT GLOWS FROM DUSK TO DAWN”

— BERNARDO FORT-BRESCIA, PRINCIPAL, ARQUITECTONICA

From community connection at the Inner Circle social club and personal betterment at the Core Club wellness center to bespoke hospitality via Spera's Three Sixty service program and the cultural riches of the East Cut neighborhood, every angle of this striking apartment tower expands your horizons, with something new to take in, everywhere you look.

4.0 THE EAST CUT

As San Francisco's first high-rise walkable neighborhood, the East Cut pairs a global tech headquarters epicenter with the trappings of a tight-knit urban community—eclectic local restaurants, expertly-curated shops, and ultimate regional access from the Transbay Transit Center.

DISTINCT PARKS

Home to over 40 unique open spaces, explore the East Cut's art-filled alleys and cafe-lined plazas to the centerpiece of the neighborhood, Salesforce Park—a four-block elevated green space atop Transbay Transit Center.

DIVERSE CUISINE

Just out the front door are the city's best culinary experiences, from fresh fish from the Ferry Building, grabbing an IPA in Salesforce Park's beer garden and a late night burrito in the Mission.

INSPIRING CULTURE

Revel in SFMOMA's extensive sculpture collection, broaden your perspective at the Museum of the African Diaspora, or procure a piece of your own from one of the East Cut's many bluechip art galleries.

ENRICHING WELLNESS

Beyond Core Club's wellbeing programs, the East Cut promotes holistic wellness with a wide range of support—including neighborhood runs along our extensive off-street path network, neighborhood gym offerings and local personal trainers, and healthy food and drink options.
